

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I recently had occasion to work quite closely with Darren Smith who was organising an auction of surplus materials on behalf of Parramatta City Council.

Darren is a very presentable and enthusiastic person who would be an asset for whomever he works. He organised the cataloguing, advertising and sale of a large number of goods and chattels on behalf of Council with efficiency and professionalism.

He communicated clearly with a wide range of people including Council officers, tenants and members of the public and he made himself available for consultation throughout the entire process. I feel that his work was the key to the auction's success.

I have no hesitation in recommending Darren to you as a conscientious, dedicated and enthusiastic person with strong communications and organisational skills, who represents his employer with a high level of professionalism.
